Distribution, pursuant to Decedent's Will, is to:

Anna Noriega Chavez
Maria Torres
Barbara Juarez
Jose Noriega, Jr.

Objection to Petition for Final Distribution; For Setoffs; For Compensation for Extraordinary Services; and to Allow $4,500.00 to be Held in Reserve; and Request to Setoff Compensation for Loss to Estate filed 05/24/13 by Maria Noriega de Torres, Jose Noriega, Jr. and Barbara Juarez states: Objectors are beneficiaries of the estate along with Petitioner Anna Noriega Chavez. For more than 30 years, Anna took no action to administer the Estate which consisted solely of the house which was their mother's residence. Since their mother's death, the house was considered a family home and the residence of Jose and then Maria. For more than 20 years, Maria has maintained and improved the property as she was able to do so within her means. No rents have been collected by Anna since their mother passed away in 1978 and the estate has incurred no expenses attributable to the property other than those that were paid through escrow when the property was sold to Maria. Maria and Jose deny that there were any agreements for the payment of rent to Anna as the personal representative of the estate. There is no evidence of any monetary judgment in the amount of $1,500.00, or any amount owed to the Estate by Jose. Even if Anna had obtained a monetary judgment against Jose in favor of the Estate in 1981, such judgment would now be unenforceable. Any rental value Maria received from the property is full offset by payment of expenses attributable to the property and Maria's efforts to preserve the family home to the benefit of the Estate. But for Maria's efforts in retaining an attorney to force a sale to Maria at market value, no action has been taken to administer the estate. It is also believed the Anna was taking steps to evict Maria from the property. Had the property been vacated, it would have remained vacant being unrentable in its current condition. The Estate had no money to improve or maintain the property and the property could have been vandalized all to the detriment of the Estate. Maria, Jose and Barbara, being all the remaining beneficiaries except for Anna, request the court deny Anna's request for setoff against Maria and Jose and respectfully request the court order distribution of the remaining balance of the Estate to all beneficiaries in equal shares.

Objectors request the Court deny the request for extraordinary compensation to Petitioner's attorney in the amount of $4,500.00 claimed for time spent in connection with the sale of property for the following reasons:

- a. The amount requested exceeds the amount allowable under Local Rule 7.18(A)(1).
- b. Maria made a good faith offer to purchase the property on 01/06/12, through Mr. Capata, such offer being rejected with no counter offer or attempt to negotiate a sale.
- c. Rather than negotiate in good faith to the benefit to the estate, Mr. Capata utilized his time helping Anna oppose the sale to Maria.
- d. Extraordinary services for which additional compensation is requested was for time spent listing the property with a realtor in direct contradiction to the court's instructions in open court on 06/12/12 to notice the sale to Maria and allowing for potential overbids.
- e. The listing agreement negotiated by Mr. Capata failed to exclude any sale to Maria, a known buyer and bidder for the property, as would have been standard practice, to the detriment of the estate.

Anna should be charged for the loss to the Estate. On 12/05/11, Maria was in a position to purchase the home from the Estate, hired an appraiser to determine the fair market value for the property and obtained a written appraisal indicating the fair market value to be $64,000.00. On 01/06/12, Maria submitted a written offer to Anna through Mr. Capata to purchase the property for $55,000.00 in "as-is condition" with no realtor's commissions having to be paid on the sale. Anna refused to negotiate with Maria for the sale of the property. There was no counter offer to Maria's offer, her offer being flatly rejected and Maria was thereafter threatened with eviction. Maria alleges that Anna's actions were not in the best interest of the Estate but were based on personal bias to keep Maria from buying the property at any price. Maria was forced to hire an attorney to file a Petition for Order Directing Personal Representative to Act (filed in this matter on 04/06/12) at great expense in order to negotiate for the purchase of the property. At the hearing on Maria's Petition on 06/12/12, Anna requested she be allowed to list the property for sale through a realtor rather than selling to Maria. In response, the Court ordered Anna to notice a sale of the subject property for $55,000.00 to Maria in the appropriate format setting forth overbids. Contrary to the Court's instruction, Anna enlisted a family friend, Irma Soltero, an agent at Century 21 Real Estate to list the property for sale. The listing agreement failed to specifically exclude any sale of the property to Maria, a known bidder, only excluding a sale to Maria if there were no overbids to the detriment of the estate. At the confirmation hearing, the property was ultimately sold to Maria and the issue of the realtor's commission was discussed. After discussion wherein the Court was hesitant to allow any commissions whatsoever because a sale to Maria should have been excluded from commission, it was agreed that the realtor would receive a commission of $330.00, being 6% of the sales price over and above the initial bid (see minute Order from hearing on 08/07/12). Contrary to the Court's order, Anna, through her attorney, submitted an Order Confirming Sale allowing for a commission of $3,300.00, rather than the $330.00 as ordered, without noticing the matter for further proceedings to allow for a proper objection. The Estate was not required to pay a commission of $3,300.00. The order as submitted to the Court allowing for a commission of $3,300.00 resulted in a loss to the Estate of $3,000.00. Petitioners therefore request Anna's compensation be reduced by the loss to the Estate.

Objector's further request that only a reasonable amount be established for a reserve account, that amount being the amount necessary for the preparation of a first and final fiduciary tax return as any tax liability should have already been determined.

Objectors, therefore, pray:

1. Anna Noriega Chavez's request for setoff of alleged unpaid rents be denied and the court order distribution of the remaining balance of the estate after reservation of a reasonable amount for preparation of a first and final fiduciary return be in equal shares to all four beneficiaries without offset;
2. The request for extraordinary compensation to Anna Noriega Chavez's attorney be denied;
3. Anna Noriega Chavez's statutory fee be reduced by $3,000.00 for the loss to the estate in wrongful commissions paid to the real estate agent; and
4. Attorney's fees and costs against Anna Noriega Chavez's share of the distributable estate as the Court deems appropriate.
